SPECIAL NOTICE – CLUSTER OBEDIENCE TRIAL

With the approval of the American Kennel Club, Obedience Trial classes at the OKC cluster will be consolidated to provide maximum efficiency in scheduling and judging. The Judging Program will include a complete list of breeds to be judged, and the order in which they will be judged. All Specialties in this Cluster that are offering Obedience Classes will be judged together. Each dog will be judged and individual scores recorded in the respective breed's judge's book. For the group exercises in Obedience, all breeds will be judged in one group. If there are more dogs competing than can be spaced four (4) feet per dog on one side of a ring, some must be judged in another group. The judge will divide the class into equal sections and the group exercise will be judged after each section. Following completion of group exercises, the judge will complete the judge's books for all dogs entered in each Obedience class in the respective breed's judge's book. Ribbons and awards will then be awarded by breed. Qualifying points in Obedience are based on the number of dogs in each breed only

SET UP OF TENTS/EQUIPMENT MAY NOT BE WITHIN 15 FEET OF ANY RINGS.

THIS WILL BE ENFORCED

NON-REGULAR CLASSES (INVOLVING MULTIPLE DOG ENTRIES)GENERAL RULES – FOR CLUB-SPECIFIC CONDITIONS & FEES, REFER TO YOUR BREED'S SECTION

STUD DOG CLASS: For Stud Dogs and their get. Stud Dogs must be entered in the Stud Dog Class and must be shown in the ring with their Get. Owner of the Stud Dog need not necessarily be owner of the Get. While the merits of the Stud Dog are not to be considered in the placement of the entry, the Stud Dog must be examined to determine if it has a condition that would require its disqualification or excusal under the Dog Show Rules, AKC policy, or the standard for its breed. Get must be entered in a regular class, Best of Breed, or some other non-regular class.

BROOD BITCH CLASS: For Brood Bitches and their produce. Brood Bitches must be entered in the Brood Bitch Class and must be shown in the ring with their Produce. Owner of the Brood Bitch need not necessarily be owner of the Produce. While the merits of the Brood Bitch are not to be considered in the placement of the entry, the Brood Bitch must be examined to determine if it has a condition that would require its disqualification or excusal under the Dog Show Rules, AKC policy, or the standard for its breed. Produce must be entered in a regular class, Best of Breed, or some other non-regular class.

BRACE CLASS: Two dogs that are similar in appearance, performing in unison, and presented by a maximum of two handlers. Both dogs competing in brace competition must have at least one common owner. The dogs comprising a Brace MUST be named at the time of entry. If a dog, which is to be part of a Brace, is not entered in any of the Regular Classes or for Best of Breed Competition, it must be entered for "Brace Class Only." An entry form for a dog entered in a Regular Class or for "Best of Breed Competition" and entered as part of a Brace MUST be marked accordingly in the space provided for Additional Classes. "Brace Class." If more than one Brace is entered by same owner, dogs comprising EACH BRACE must be so designated – "Brace No. 1," Brace No. 2," etc.

NOTE: As the judge's decision in the Stud Dog, Brood Bitch or Brace Classes is based on the merits of more than one dog/bitch, no one of the dogs/bitches making up the entry judged first in these classes will be eligible to compete for Best of Breed by virtue of having won this class.

NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS REGARDING CORRECTIONS OR CHANGES TO ENTRIES: Corrections other than the specific changes listed in Ch. 11, Sec. 6 (i.e. sex of a dog, transfers between age specific classes, and "move-up's" to BOB or BOV) are the only changes to the entries superintendents or secretaries are authorized to make after closing of entries. Owners are responsible for errors in the entry forms, regardless of who may make such errors. THIS RULE IS BEING STRICTLY ENFORCED BY THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB. PLEASE CHECK YOUR ENTRIES CAREFULLY. Corrections to entries may be made by the Superintendent prior to the closing of entries if such correction is submitted in writing. PSVC would like encourage exhibitors (and the judges) to dress as if on a tropical vacation. Because this show will begin at 4 pm, OUTDOORS during what is normally the hottest part of the year, shorts and Hawaiian style attire is highly encouraged. Overdressing maybe hazardous to your health. But, also be aware, this IS the Pacific Northwest, summer rain showers are nearly as likely as 100 degree weather, thus we suggest you be prepared for just about anything!

ANIMALS IN VEHICLES

Should the on-site veterinarian determine that any dog enclosed in a vehicle is in danger, the show committee reserves the right to break into that vehicle. Anyone parking in the show site parking areas must accept full responsibility for damages should this occur.

GROUNDS RULES

Each exhibitor is responsible for cleaning up after his own dog(s). Pooper-scoopers will be placed around the show grounds for your convenience. If your dog soils in the show ring, the ring steward will hold your dog while YOU do the clean-up. A pooper-scooper will be placed outside each ring. Responsible dog owners will clean up after their dog(s). PARENTS SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR CHILDREN AT ALL TIMES! NO SKATEBOARDS, ROLLERBLADES, SCOOTERS OR BIKES WILL BE ALLOWED ON THE SHOW GROUNDS. Grooming and exercise pens in DESIGNATED AREAS ONLY. Crates may be brought to ringside during breed judging and must be removed immediately when judging for that breed is over. NO GROOMING OR SMOKING UNDER SHADE TENTS OR IN AISLES.

Instead of boarding your dog you can B O A R D

with your dog. Isn't that better? Because the AKC is making air travel with your dog an easier option. And a safer one, too. For example, after discussions and advice from the AKC, American Airlines dropped a ban on travel of certain breeds. Not only does the airline once again welcome all breeds, it has adopted new AKC recommended safety requirements. • And sometimes we need your voice to be heard, too. In 2000, we started a letter-writing campaign to United Airlines. As a result, United agreed to once again allow dogs to travel as "excess baggage" — thereby assuring that you and your dog will be on the same flight. • Now we're working to improve foreign canine air travel. The AKC has met with domestic air carriers, the U.S. Department of Agriculture and members of Congress to advocate that foreign carriers transporting dogs into and out of the United States comply with the same high standards as U.S. carriers. • So whether you're puddle-jumping or globe-trotting, you can confidently bring your best friend along for the ride. Which, after all, has been our goal all along. To speak for dogs and look out for their safety. On the ground and in the air, too. To learn more about the policies of individual airlines, visit akc.org/airtravel.
